THEATRE EDUCATION FOR ALL

In 2025, we awarded a record-breaking $171,000+ in scholarships to ensure we can support as many families in our community as possible. We welcomed over 550 young people into last year's summer programs, setting a new high for our biggest camp enrollment season.

THE WORKFORCE OF TOMORROW

The Theatre Lab proudly co-leads the AICA, a groundbreaking workforce development program for young adults. Over 87% of our AICA graduates are steadily employed as theatre technical professionals at leading performing arts and entertainment venues in the DMV.

"But perhaps most moving is the way this production showcases what arts education can achieve."

The MTIT's four-week intensive doesn't just culminate in a musical — it results in a fully realized work of art where young performers are empowered to take on mature material with integrity and artistry. The Theatre Lab has long been a leader in this space, and this staging of Hadestown: Teen Edition reinforces why."

— DC THEATER ARTS REVIEW

HADESTOWN: TEEN EDITION PERFORMED BY THE THEATRE LAB'S MUSICAL THEATRE INSTITUTE FOR TEENS AT ATLAS PERFORMING ARTS CENTER

LEADER IN PROFESSIONAL-CALIBER STUDENT PRODUCTIONS

Our production of Hadestown: Teen Edition premiered last July to sold-out houses and became the best-selling show in Theatre Lab history. Performed by our renowned Musical Theatre Institute for Teens (MTIT), this show represented not only the exemplary training we provide to students of all ages and experience levels, but the quality productions we make accessible to the greater DC region. At a time when arts funding is especially vulnerable, we are proud to serve as an increasingly prominent independent performing arts center serving our community.

SUSTAINING OUR MISSION

"AICA helped me achieve something I hadn't felt in a long time: success. Not just in work, but in purpose. In confidence. In myself. Before this program, I hit rock bottom. I'd burned through almost every option I had. And then came AICA. They didn't offer a magic fix, but they did offer something better. They said, 'I can't carry it for you, but I can carry you.'"
